1. Message from the Mayor and the General Manager

It is a pleasure and privilege for us to present the first Norfolk Island Community Strategic Plan “Our Plan for the Future”.

This Plan will guide Councillors, staff, the community and other stakeholders into the future in order to endeavour to fulfil the aspirations of the Norfolk Island Community. The aim is to drive all actions towards a sustainable community where resources are managed in a way to ensure a flourishing environment for future generations.

The key to sustainability for a small and isolated land mass such as Norfolk Island must start with our Environment: water, food, waste, energy and the preservation of our natural environment and the sea, whilst also recognising the need for the built environment and ports.

Environmental sustainability is interlinked with our Social and Cultural priorities: communication, services, cultural diversity, social engagement, health and well-being and creating “the best place to live, work and play”.

Environmental and Social sustainability are further interlinked with Economic Sustainability: tourism, diverse industry, import and export, shipping and cargo, jobs and training, learning and volunteering and so on.

“Our Plan for the Future” also ensures that all groups in the community are included: the aged and people with disabilities; youth and children and people of all cultures. The underlying principles of everything in the plan are based on the Principles of Social Justice:

- Equity - fairness in the distribution of resources, particularly for those in need
- Rights - equality of rights established and promoted for all people
- Access - fair access for all people to economic resources, services and rights essential to their quality of life
- Participation - opportunity for all people to genuinely participate in the community and be consulted on decisions which affect their lives

Lastly, Leadership and Governance must be transparent, responsible and based on solid decision making and accountability. It must ensure financial sustainability and sound asset management – all of which will be required for the success of the Norfolk Island Regional Council and the implementation of this plan.

We are sincerely looking forward to working with the Councillors, staff and the community in driving and implementing the strategic direction contained within the Norfolk Island Community Strategic Plan - “Our Plan for the Future”.

2. Vision, Mission and Values

2.1 Vision

Norfolk Island – the Best Small Island in the World

Source: “If a concerted effort were made, backed by larger financial resources, the community could turn the very small area of the island to its own advantage by converting Norfolk Island into ‘the best small island in the world’, a model haven of considerable beauty, of unique historical interest, of a thriving community, and of rest and relaxation – which are the objectives of the overwhelming mass of the tourists who make the journey to its shores.”. (Professor G J Butland - Population Study of Norfolk Island dated 31 March 1974 commissioned by Commonwealth Government)

2.2 Mission

The Norfolk Island Regional Council will provide local civic leadership and governance through good decision making, accountability and transparency.

We will protect and enhance our unique culture, heritage, traditions and environment for the Norfolk Island People. We will do this through promoting a healthy and sustainable lifestyle, by looking after our community assets, and by fostering a prosperous economy.

2.3 Values

The Norfolk Island Regional Council embraces the following values that were developed in a work-shop with the Councillors (I CARE):

Integrity

Communication

Accountability

Respect

Excellence
3. Our Plan for the Future

The Norfolk Island Strategic Plan – Our Plan for the Future, was prepared in consultation and cooperation with a broad cross section of the community and reflects the aspirations and values of the people who live on Norfolk Island. The plan has taken into account numerous reports, surveys and plans completed over the recent past. The consultation process showed there is a strong alignment with the conclusions of the Norfolk Island Advisory Council.

Our Plan for the Future is a critical strategic and aspirational plan for the Norfolk Island community and for the inaugural Regional Council. It sets out a long-term vision for the Norfolk Island community along with meaningful and measurable objectives and strategies. It has been developed through consultation and engagement with the community and reflects a positive and future focused approach to strategic and collaborative planning.

Our Plan for the Future acknowledges that Norfolk Island has unique needs, aspirations and challenges of a small remote island; and identifies and builds on current community strengths to ensure they are maximised. It also outlines new social, economic and environmental opportunities that can be realised when the community, its council and other partners such as Federal and State agencies work together to realise the vision for the future.

4. What is a Community Strategic Plan?

4.1 The Integrated Planning and Reporting Framework

All Councils in NSW are required to develop short, medium and long-term plans under the Integrated Planning and Reporting (IPR) Framework. Our Plan for the Future articulates the long-term vision for the community. Norfolk Island Regional Council will develop a ten-year Resource Strategy which considers the vision and aspirations of the community outlined in Our Plan for the Future against the level of resources that will realistically be available to achieve these aspirations. Norfolk Island Regional Council will use these long term plans to develop a medium term Delivery Program that will set out what Council plans to achieve in the next four years as well as an annual Operational Plan to set out what will be achieved for the community each year (short term).

While the Norfolk Island Regional Council has a custodial role in initiating, preparing and maintaining this Community Strategic Plan on behalf of its community, it is not solely responsible for its implementation. Other partners, such as the Australian Government (representing the responsibilities of State agencies) and community groups will also be engaged and responsible in delivering the long-term objectives of the plan.
The Integrated Planning and Reporting Framework for Norfolk Island will differ from the framework applied to NSW because of the location of Norfolk Island and because Norfolk Island is a Territory of Australia but not part of NSW. This means the Norfolk Island Community Strategic Plan does not need to be connected to the Community Strategic Plans of other local government areas. It must give due regard to Commonwealth legislation. Figure 1 - The Integrated Planning and Reporting Framework for Norfolk Island

Adapted from the NSW integrated Planning and Reporting Framework to reflect the needs of Norfolk Island. The NSW framework is available online at: https://www.olg.nsw.gov.au/councils/integrated-planning-and-reporting/framework
4.2 What this Plan includes

The NSW Local Government Act, as applied to Norfolk Island, sets out a number of requirements for the Community Strategic Plan, including that it be developed and endorsed by Council. The Norfolk Island Community Strategic Plan - Our Plan for the Future - includes:

- Strategic directions that are the main priorities and aspirations for the future of Norfolk Island in the next ten years
- Objectives that address social, environmental, economic and civic leadership issues in an integrated manner
- Strategies that outline how these objectives will be achieved
- The identification of potential partners to assist in realising the Plan

4.3 Planning in partnerships

Where the aspirations and expectations of the community go beyond the scope and reach of what its council can deliver, understanding where potential partnerships exist is essential. Although Norfolk Island Regional Council does not have to factor in the State Plan 2021, there are a series of strategic goals within that plan that will assist the delivery of community expectations at a Commonwealth (state services) level, while enabling coordination and alignment at a local level. They are:

- Rebuild the economy
- Provide quality services
- Renovate infrastructure
- Strengthen the environment and community
- Provide strong, accountable Government

4.4 Reporting on progress

The General Manager will prepare quarterly reports, on the budget in the Operational Plan together with a State of the Environment Report to the Mayor and Councillors. Based on these reports, the Mayor and Councillors will report to the community every six months on the Council’s progress in achieving the delivery program objectives. In the last year of the Council’s term in office, an End of Term Report will be prepared as an additional section for the Annual Report, outlining progress in achieving the objectives of this Community Strategic Plan and the State of the Environment report.
4.5 How the Plan was Developed

Our Plan for the Future has been developed on the social justice principles of equity, access, participation and rights.

The community was provided with genuine opportunities to provide their input and ideas. This included:

1. Twenty-one (21) initial focus groups of both group discussion and individual response to surveys (in total 113)
2. A second round of community workshops and focus groups as well as individual meetings to gain feedback on the first draft of the Plan (total 132 people engaged)
3. Opportunity to review the second draft through public exhibition.
4. The third draft was presented to Council in July 2016 for adoption. Council adopted the plan for further public exhibition and also for a further public meeting.
5. Approximately 130 community members attended a public forum where the General Manager presented the 3rd draft of the Plan.
6. Subsequently, 56 submissions were received and where appropriate, they have been included in the final draft.

5. Norfolk Island Today

Located in the Pacific Ocean approximately 1,400 km from the Eastern Seaboard of Australia, Norfolk Island has a landmass of approximately 3,455 hectares.

Norfolk Island is an external territory of Australia, governed locally by the Norfolk Island Regional Council. As is the case with other external territories, the Australian Government is responsible for the provision of federal and state level services, and the Regional Council is responsible for all aspects of local government operations.

It is acknowledged that Polynesians colonized the Island around 1000 years ago, and that there were two British Penal Colonies on the Island between 1788 and 1854. It is also recognised that in 1856 the Pitcairn Islanders were relocated as a community to Norfolk Island where they have continued to evolve as a people in their new homeland. Over the years the Norfolk Islanders of Pitcairn descent have been joined by people from around the world drawn to the isolation, natural beauty of the island and the way of life and culture of the Pitcairn community; and today, Norfolk Island has a makeup of people from the United Kingdom and Tahiti (both through descent and directly), from Australia, New Zealand, other Pacific Islands, Russia, Scandinavia, the United States of America, Canada, Fiji and the Philippines.

At the last census in 2011 Norfolk Island’s population (excluding visitors and tourists) was 1,796. Eighty percent of the population are Australian citizens and thirteen percent hold New Zealand citizenship. Forty-five percent are descendants of the Pitcairn Islanders who settled on Norfolk in 1856.

Norfolk Island has stunning natural beauty and is home to the Kingston and Arthurs Vale Historic Area – an open and publically accessible site included in the World Heritage listing for Australian convict sites, the Norfolk Island National Park, and a number of other public parks and reserves.

Infrastructure concerns for Norfolk Island include natural resource management. Fresh water is of significant concern for the Island and there are no natural bodies of water. There is currently no solid waste collection system on Norfolk Island, with all residents and businesses being required to bring their own waste to the Waste Management Centre. Household waste that cannot otherwise be disposed of is burned and dumped into the ocean.

Tourism is a principal economic activity, with the majority of tourists coming from Australia and New Zealand aged over 60 years. Employment participation rates operate at higher levels than that of most of mainland Australia. However, those people in their prime employment operational years are significantly under represented. Nearly half of the employment on the Island is tourism related compared to 25% as the average within mainland Australia.

Cost of living information indicates that house rental and house purchase prices fall within averages that are consistent with rural and regional Australia. However, imported goods are expensive as a consequence of freight costs. Building materials are third on the list of imports behind food/household goods and fuel. A basket of groceries, representative of weekly household purchases, was costed at 50% higher than that of mainland Australia before July 2016.

2 Addendum to the Norfolk Island 2011 Census Report 17 January, 2012
6. What the Community said

6.1 What’s great about Norfolk Island now?
The community was asked to identify the key aspects of the Norfolk Island that they currently love and are proud of. The answers in priority order are:

- Climate and environment
- Culture and community
- Peaceful lifestyle

QUOTES

- Peace and calmness
- Fresh air
- Family and community
- Culture
- Beautiful place to live
- Great natural environment
- Children can walk to school
- Community values
- People willing to lend a hand
- Great place to bring up children
6.2 How do you see Norfolk in ten years’ time?

The community wants to retain the things that are already good; environment, community and culture and a safe, peaceful lifestyle. They also want improvements in the three areas of:

- Sustainable economy
- Good governance
- Infrastructure that meets our needs

QUOTES
6.3 What are the top ten most important issues to be addressed in the future?

During phase one of the consultation, a community survey was provided that asked participants to review a list of matters across five themes: local environment, local economy, community and culture, infrastructure and services; and governance and finance. Participants voted on the importance of each as well as their current level of satisfaction of these matters. The findings across all five areas were:

1. Financial Sustainability
2. Representational leadership
3. Waste infrastructure
4. Renewable energy infrastructure
5. Community Participation
6. Quality internet services
7. Professional and efficient services
8. Quality roads
9. Support for local businesses
10. Equitable access to services

The second round of consultation resulted in ongoing emphasis on the most important issue identified in round 1 consultation (financial sustainability) however, community discussion and feedback called for expanded thinking and planning particularly around environmental sustainability.

Priority 9, Support for local business, was supported but so too was the continued focus and investment into the tourism industry.

Finally, the most significant feedback on the list of priorities above was the omission of health services. There is significant community concern around equitable health care provision and the need for prioritisation of health care for the aged and ageing. Whilst many acknowledged health might appear to fall outside the scope of the Regional Council, all believed there was a leadership and advocacy role to play.

Social welfare issues were also concerns, specifically in regard to domestic violence and child protection.

6.4 Developing the Strategic Direction

The first round of consultation resulted in three distinct pieces of information:

1. Community’s articulation about what they loved and valued about Norfolk Island right now;
2. Community’s articulation of their hopes and dreams for the future of Norfolk Island;
3. Community’s response to the questionnaire which required them to assess their needs against their satisfaction across five themes of local environment, local economy, community and culture, infrastructure and services; and governance and finance.
Further, there have been many reports written over the recent past, which have identified priorities based on community expectations and aspirations. The consistent theme of wanting to preserve what is good about Norfolk Island – the environment; culture and lifestyle are found in these reports. There is also consistent desire for a future focused on ensuring a sustainable economy, best practice governance and finding ways to improve infrastructure.

Using the information described above and the draft Community Strategic Plan; the community developed a set of six strategic directions and developed strategies to achieve them. Over the course of a week, the strategic directions were reviewed and refined over dozens of sessions by more than 100 participants. Further community engagement and submissions throughout August 2016 have strengthened and added to these strategies and objectives throughout the plan.

The vision, strategic directions and objectives are outlined on the next page.
