

Norfolk Island Regional Council

MEDIA RELEASE

TELECOM CUSTOMERS

Norfolk Telecom's mail servers experienced a fault at 9.15am Friday morning which has effected access to email accounts hosted on the Telecom email server. Local IT technicians are working with support providers in New Zealand and the USA to rectify the issue.

We apologise for any inconvenience caused and hope to restore services to normal as soon as possible.

Bruce Taylor

Group Manager - Services Norfolk Island Regional Council

25 November 2016