

MEDIA RELEASE

TELECOM CUSTOMERS

Norfolk Telecom customers are advised that due to technical issues, a break in internet services has been occurring for 90 seconds every 45 minutes. Specialised transmission equipment has been ordered from O3b to rectify the problem and is expected to arrive this weekend. Norfolk Telecom apologises for any inconvenience this has caused.

Lotta Jackson

GENERAL MANAGER

10 November 2017